Politicus Looks at Tuesday's Election

By POLITICUS

Well, next Tuesday is the big election day.

And voters in this area will probably turn out in larger number than at any time in our history. Never have our people been so active — looking for and then backing candidates; holding meetings; campaigning and bustling about.

This is a very, very healthy sign. It is the start of our realization that we must do more than just "live" here. As long as we pay taxes, drive highways, need schools — and have so many growing problems, then we should "participate."

And as important — it serves notice on the fellows in Martinez and Richmond and Sacramento, too, that Central Contra Costa must be reckoned with.

Wait a minute, this sounds like and editorial — and old Politicus is supposed to write about politics and things.

ANYWAY, PERHAPS the most important reason why we are so keenly interested in Tuesday's election is that lots of the news started in these parts.

John Baldwin's candidacy for Congress resulted from the grass roots meeting in Lafayette. And this was a result of the popular disgust at the thought of Sheriff Long being the G.O.P. candidate for Congress.

As you recall, Long was forced to pull out of the race, despite the backing of the powers in Richmond. This is conclusive proof that Central Contra Costa can wield political punch.

Of course, the Democrats' strong man in the congressional race is Robert Condon, a resident of Walnut Creek.

NOW, LET'S LOOK at the free-for-all Assembly contest.

In the main, it is a local brawl. From Walnut Creek come Republicans O. J. Wohlgemuth, John Nejedly, King Parker and Democrat William Phelps. Lafayette is the home of Democrat Harold Mutnick and Republican Don Doyle.

The winner on the Republican ticket will definitely be one of the local fellows.

Observers name Harmon Welsh of Port Chicago as the leading Demo Assembly aspirant. But Welsh has not appeared at a single meeting or rally in these parts.

Politicus was told he has attended two meetings in the county — one to get the C.I.O. endorsement; the other to try to get the AF. of L. endorsement. But this went to Mutnick.

Interesting story about Welsh:

He wanted to run for Assembly some years ago when Condon first tossed in his hat. The "powers," whoever they may be, persuaded Welsh to withdraw with the promise that the job would be his when Condon moves on.

Who wants to bet on the Assembly race — particularly the G.O.P. scramble?

"Not me," says this little red hen.

Frankly, old Politicus can't even venture a guess as to who will win. Can you?

DON DOYLE? His has perhaps been the best campaign, with professional guidance and a lot of push.

O. J. WOHLGEMUTH? Wally has been speaking all over the district and he started campaigning earlier than the others. His campaign efforts have been consistent and perhaps as strong as Doyle's.

JOHN NEJEDLY? He, too, has been making the luncheon club circuit, as well as the political meeting routine. But Nejedly has been swamped with his attorney's work for the city of Walnut Creek and the Sanitary District, as well as his own practice. Consequently, his campaign has suffered just a little.

KING PARKER? His campaign seems to have started late, but is rolling along now.

Note, however, that campaign activity does not correlate in any way with who is the best man. What Politicus is trying to say is that he doesn't want anyone to think that Politicus believes one candidate is better than the other because of campaign efforts.

Getting all mixed up — but, brother, there are too many good guys running in this one to get caught in the middle.

Anyway, we wouldn't bet a lead nickel on this race.

IN THE RACE for state senator, Daryl Hutchins, Walnut Creek Republican, is challenging George Miller Jr. And Hutchins is showing unexpected strength and lots of activity.

Another issue to watch is the county road bond issue. Our supervisors have been working like mad on this one to get out a yes vote. The two toughest districts, they admit, are Richmond and this area.

Well, see you at the polls.

Wood to File New Request--Old One Protested by 130

It was "Standing Room Only" in Room 210 of the Hall of Records in Martinez when the County Planning Commission held its weekly meeting there Tuesday night — and a major reason for the "S. R. O." was the crowd of 130 Orindans present in protest to realtor Fred T. Wood's proposed subdivision plans between the Moraga Estates and Moraga Glorietta sections.

Wood informed the commission that he was withdrawing the map and that, after conferring with area residents, he would submit a revised map and a new application.

The planners tentatively set June 17 as a new hearing date, but on Wednesday, after Wood had phoned that he had arranged a meeting with residents at his office for next Wednesday night, Assistant County Planning Technician Russell Griffith said the next hearing would probably have to be delayed until June 24, to allow necessary time for legal notice publication.

ELEVEN NEIGHBORHOOD improvement groups were represented Tuesday night — Moraga Del Rey Community Association, Orinda Oaks Association, Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association, Moraga Meadows Association, Encinas De Moraga Association, Orindans, Inc., Glorietta Improvement Association, Rheem Highlands Assaciotion, Snug Harbor Association, Moraga Highlands Improvement Association and the Highlanders.

Basis of the objections was that Wood sought permission to have 41 out of 110 lots to be less than a half-acre in size, in an R-A area, and that his setback and side yard requests were less than required by the zoning ordinance.

JOSEPH CREIGHTON OF THE Glorietta group acted as spokesman for the objectors. He submitted several individual letters of protest and a resolution from the Orinda Association Board of Directors.

The resolution, adopted Monday night after Frank Cayting and Plans Approval Chairman Hart Livingston of the Glorietta Improvement Association had discussed the problem with Orinda Association directors, stated:

"WHEREAS, WE ARE informed that the said notice requests reduction of areas of 41 out of 110 lots to a size below that of the master zoning ordinance and that, further, setbacks and side yards on all lots are to be reduced below that of the master zoning ordinance, the Board of Directors of the Orinda Association hereby registers strenuous objections to such wholesale reductions in areas, setbacks and side yards, and requests that the Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors not approve the subdivision plan as proposed."

Griffith said later that, in addition to the communications submitted by Creaghton, "quite a number" of other protest letter had been received.

THE OVERFLOW session of the Planning Commission climaxed several days of activity, including opposition by the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee, discussions by residents with Wood and a meeting Monday night of representatives of eight improvement clubs at the Carl Meurk home on Irvine Drive.

Groups represented at the Meurk home were the associations from Glorietta, Moraga Meadows, Lost Valley, Orinda Oaks, Moraga Woodlands, Rheem Highlands and Oak Sprigs, and the Orindans, Inc.

Present at the commission session with Wood was his engineer, Frank Draeger, and William Barnes, manager for the Moraga Company, owner of the land involved.

Actually, the map which Wood withdrew was the second he had submitted. The next map will be the third.

WHEN BARNES OBJECTED to a few weeks' delay, John Stoffel, planning commissioner from Orinda, suggested that the delay would be good because it would afford all parties the opportunity to get together and attempt to iron out differences.

Planning Technician Tom Heaton promised Crieghton that the groups would be furnished with photostatic copies of the third map.

Among others at the commission hearing were President Earl Doxee, Maynard Buehler, Cayting and Livingston of the Glorietta Improvement Association; President E. A. Fowler Jr. of Orindans, Inc., George Merriam of the Orinda Oaks group, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller of the Highlanders, President Tevis Thompson of the Moraga Meadows Association, Ernest Rahmeyer of the Moraga Del Rey Community Association, Mrs. Grace West of Rheem Highlands and Mrs. Ted Harrer of the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association.

'BON VOYAGE' and all that sort of thing! A bit early, perhaps, for such wishes, since the "Eur-Cal" summer tour of Europe, sponsored by the Associated Students at the University of California, is still a few weeks off — but a party for some of the girls who will go on the trip, and for their parents, was given at the Melvin Jacobus estate, "Sol-Brae," in Orinda last Sunday. Young people at the gathering, left to right, were: Front row — Marian Scofield of Lafayette and Nancy Noonan; second row — Jean S. Hill of Orinda, Florence Ludlow of Berkeley, Marilyn Crowford of Berkeley, Henry Anderson, Virginia Hyman, Joan Jacobus, daughter of the hosts, and Mimi Ustevdt; back row — Ed Welch, Bill Ludlow and Ray Talley. Marian, Jean, Florence, Marilyn and Joan will be "Eur-Cal"-ites come June 20. Just to get in the proper mood, the group is studying a globe.—SUN Photo by Mattson

Lower Power Rate Requested For Orinda Areas

Certain sections of Orinda may be placed in a lower utility rate classification by the California Public Utilities Commission, it was reported by Peter Veitch to the Orinda Association Board of Directors Monday night.

Veitch told of his appearance before the P.U.C. hearing session on the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's application for increased rates, on May 22. He appeared as a representative of the Orinda Association board and requested a lower classification than the present D-6.

He told the board that the P.U.C. will conduct a survey of areas it designates, and the board agreed that the following general areas probably have enough population density to warrant a D-5 rating:

Moraga Meadows and adjacent territory; a strip along Moraga Highway toward Moraga Del Rey; Sleepy Hollow; Haciendas Del Orinda, and Orinda Park Terrace-Orinda Estates-Orinda Oaks.

Veitch pointed out that if the lower classification is granted, the areas involved would "just about break even" in event of an increase in rates ,but that otherwise rates would go up over 20 per cent.

Proposal May Be Presented To Legislature

Expected to be ready in "about a month," according to Oakland City Manager John F. Hassler, is a report by the Alameda County Highway Advisory Committee on the feasibilty of building a second tunnel to Contra Costa County.

The possible second tunnel, in which Oakland and Alameda County officials are interested, would enter the Contra Costa hills about a mile south of the Oakland portal of the Broadway Low-Level Tunnel and would lead to Shepard Canyon.

The proposal is expected to be presented to the State Legislature next January. The idea would be for it to be built with the aid of state funds, Hassler pointed out.

Hassler discussed the project at a recent gathering at Athens Athletic Club, attended by some 30 civic and political figures.

"A SECOND TUNNEL is needed badly to take some of the traffic away from the Broadway Tunnel," he said.

The projected second tunnel would have four lanes and would connect with Park Boulevard in Oakland. From there, motorists could go onto Mountain Boulevard for access to Berkeley.

Some of the other officials at the gathering expressed the opinion that the second tunnel should be linked with the $10,250,000 Contra Costa County road bonds proposal, which will be on the Contra Costa ballots next Tuesday. But Hassler replied:

"We should not wait for any outside agencies to propose the construction of a tunnel into Oakland."

Walter N. Frickstad, retired Oakland city engineer, urged that the Alameda County Highway Advisory Committee's survey and report be completed as soon as possible so that "a united front will be available when aid is sought from the state."

IN CONNECTION WITH the Contra Costa road bonds proposal, Joseph L. Judson, chairman of the Contra Costa Citizens' Committee of 100, reported this week that he had been at a recent session of the California Highway Commission in Sacramento, and that the commissioners were greatly interested in the bond issue campaign.

"The commissioners commented that Contra Costa is the only county which seems to be moving in the direction of a solution of its own road problems," Judson said.

Poker Parlor Ban Asked of County By El Cerrito

Reports that the Wagon Wheel, erstwhile Pechart-Kessel gambling spot which has been closed for several weeks, is about to become a wheel of draw poker fortune caused a flurry of activity by El Cerrito city officials this week, including their request for County Board of Supervisors action.

The Wagon Wheel is in a strip of unincorporated area known as "No Man's Land" just outside El Cerrito.

Recently El Cerrito city officials became concerned over reports that the Wagon Wheel was being prepared for revival as a draw poker parlor.

EL CERRITO City Manager Kenneth H. Smith and John Ormasa of the city attorney's office appeared before the supervisors Tuesday and urged enactment of a "regulatory ordinance that would prohibit card tables in unincorporated areas that are adjacent to cities that prohibit card rooms and in other communities where residents have clearly demonstrated a desire to prohibit such card rooms."

Smith pointed out that El Cerrito, Richmond and Albany prohibit draw poker parlors.

Board Chairman Jack Cummings recalled efforts of Lafayette organizations and citizens to have the county outlaw draw poker in unincorporated areas last summer and said the board had taken the stand that it is a state problem, since the state considers draw poker legal. The board also refused the request of Lafayette residents for licensing of draw poker parlors.

ON MOTION OF Supervisor Ivan Goyak, seconded by Supervisor Ray S. Taylor, the El Cerrito request was continued until June 10, so that the matter could be studied further with the district attorney's office.

(Editor's note: The last regular session of the Assembly passed a bill to outlaw draw poker in California, but the measure was killed in the Senate.)

THE WAGON WHEEL development served to underscore, in the minds of observers, the "poker front" situations in Central Contra Costa County.

In Lafayette, the Pastime "social club"—target of community protests last summer — has been closed for several weeks. Despite vigorous objections by residents, it was opened last August.

In Walnut Creek, draw poker at Leo's Smoke Shop and elsewhere has caused citizens to express concern, and the ministers' association has undertaken a study of the matter.

In Orinda, ever since Lafayette's experience of last summer, community leaders have been "on their toes" to guard against possible infiltration of Orinda by poker parlors. The Orinda Association passed a strongly-worded resolution last summer, expressing opposition to any possible opening of poker parlors in Orinda.

PRESENTED TO THE supervisors by Smith and Ormasa were copies of a resolution unanimously passed by the El Cerrito City Council Monday night, urging an ordinance outlawing draw poker parlors as an emergency measure "in order to protect the health, welfare and public safety" of citizens.

Smith told the supervisors that "a legal gambling establishment" in "No Man's Land" would tend to bring undesirable persons into the area and would breed crime and disturbance in El Cerrito, Richmond and Albany.

No Summer Lag - But Joint Meets May Be Tried

"Summer doldrums" will not affect the Orinda Association Board of Directors, it was decided Monday night at the board meeting at Orinda School.

It was unanimously voted to continue meeting during the summer months. Then President Stanley Allen suggested possibility of holding joint meetings with the Civic Affairs Committee in June, July and August.

On motion of Everett Howe, seconded by Charles Blue ,the directors voted that Chairman Clint Hallsted of Civic Affairs be approached with the suggestion that an experimental joint session be held in June. If that session proves satisfactory, the following two meetings could also be joint, it was pointed out.

"It'll help us get a better group together during the summer," Allen observed. "The board will be better able to see what makes the Civic Affairs Committee tick, and we'll be in better shape to handle Civic Affairs recommendations next fall."

Orinda, Lafayette Drivers in Crash

An Orinda driver and a Lafayette motorist were involved in a two-car, broadside-right angle collision at Orinda Crossroads early Wednesday evening. No one was injured, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Robert Wiseman, 39, of 44 Lost Valley Drive, Orinda, was making a left turn onto Moraga Highway from the westbound half of Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Linton Carlson, 46, of 1036 Second Street, Lafayette, was traveling east on the boulevard.

The two cars collided. The rear right side of Wiseman's car was damaged, as were the left front portion and the grille of Carlson's auto.

Orinda Estates Kids' Fair Nets $5 to Red Cross

There are Red Cross drives — AND there are Red Cross drives. Three youngsters of Orinda Estates, with the enthusiastic cooperation of a bunch of other children of the area, proved that last Saturday afternoon.

Catherine Coombs, 11; Brian Trayner, 9, and Jimmy Ross, 9, decided last week to have a "Fair" to raise money for the Mt. Diablo Red Cross Chaptetr. They rigged up a "fish pond," persuaded adult neighbors to donate prizes for the "pond," and sold tickets at every house in the vicinity.

Youngsters from the entire neighborhood came to the "Fair" Saturday, "fished" for prizes and bought popcorn and cold drinks. The participants in the affair, held at the Sam Coombs home on Hacienda Circle, ranged in age from 4 to 11.

On Sunday morning Catherine, Brian and Jimmy came to Mrs. T. D. Sanford of Hacienda Circle, Orinda Estates area captain for the Red Cross, and proudly handed her a shoe box containing $5 — the money raised at the "Fair."

Road Bond Issue Backed by Board Of Association

Unanimous endorsement of the $10,250,000 county road bonds proposal which will be on next Tuesday's ballot was voted Monday night by the Orinda Association's Board of Directors.

Approval was voted following general discussion, and was on motion of Secretary Charles Blue, seconded by Harry Lacey. It was Lacey's first meeting as a board member; he replaces Jack Rechtiene, who has moved from the area.

ANOTHER VITAL "road matter" was mentioned when Everett Howe, chairman of the Joint Orinda Association-Orinda Chamber of Commerce traffic and roads committee, reported that L. A. Weymouth, district engineer for the State Division o fHighways, had told him Monday that it would be two or three weeks before the Contra Costa supervisors will receive the division's plans for the Crossroads portion of the freeway.

Blue read a letter from County Clerk Walter Paasch assuring the group that the Board of Supervisors would confer with the association-chamber joint committee before taking any action on the state's plans for the Crossroads .

KIRK MILES, just back from an eight-week tour of Europe, asked about the status of the Community Center Committee which was named by the board some months ago.

Allen replied that a "voluminous report" had been received from the committee, headed by Joseph L. Sheaff, but that it contained no recommendations. He promised to circulate the report among association directors before the next meeting.

Tilton Score - One Request Put Off, One Okayed

Because of protest from the area, the County Planning Commission, at its meeting Tuesday night, put over until next Wednesday night consideration of Paul Tilton's application for a permit for a 10-foot side yard and a 15-foot setback for Lot 21, Moraga Manor, on Orchard Road at the intersection of Valley Drive.

According to Assistant Planning Technician Russell Griffith, a representative of the neighborhood improvement group objected to noncompliance with the zoning requirements of 15 and 20-foot side yards and 20-foot setbacks.

Commissioner John Stoffel said he wished to look at the property before the next meeting, which is set for Wednesday instead of Tuesday because Tuesday is election day.

Another application by Tilton, for five-foot side yards on both sides of Lot 2, Block C, Orinda Oaks, was recommended for approval. The property is on Stanton just off Claremont, in an R-S area.

Yesiree, Kids, 'Orinda Roundup' Is Fun for You!

Here is an open letter to Little Ones from the "Orinda Roundup" Gang:

Dear Kids: (and Parents who are peeking)—

Once upon a time some people decided to give a party and invite the whole world to come.

They said, "We'll call the party 'Orinda Roundup,' named St. Mary's College as the place for the party and Saturday and Sunday, June 7-8, as the days for celebrating.

THEN THEY WONDERED: "What shall we DO at the party?"

So the Mothers said, "We'll have booths (like little stores) filled with nice presents and good food to eat!" And the Fathers said, "We'll have a hole-in-one golfing game, and a big Sunday barbecue, and lots of other things that fathers like!"

But the Big Brothers said, "Gee whiz, where do WE come in?" And the Big Sisters answered, "swimming ,carnival rides and Maurice Anger's orchestra for the Saturday night dance—YOU can't complain!"

So all the people were happy—until a little voice from down around their knees asked, "Hey, what about ME?"

THAT QUESTION caused a little scurrying, but pretty soon some ponies said, "We'll come!" And a merry-go-round said, "Me, too!" And even some very smart dogs decided to amble over and do some tricks—but STILL the people thought and thought for something more to do—

And then they realized that "Roundup" means "Cowboys," and "Cowboys" mean "Kids"—and what could be nicer than to have a little boy and girl be "Master and Miss Roundup," like the King and Queen in Fairy Tales?

Now maybe YOU will be one of those boys and girls who will win a prize and be the King or Queen of the two-day show! Just wear your cowboy cothes at 1 p.m. on Saturday, June 7, and come runnin' to the Roundup at St. Mary's College. You'll have fun!

Federation Board Urges Yes Vote For Road Bonds

Stressing five points, the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation board this week addressed an urgent plea to voters to vote "yes" on the $10,250,000 county road bonds issue, which will be on the ballot next Tuesday as Proposition A.

Following a board meeting at Horace Breed's home in Orinda Wednesday night, the directors issued the following open letter:

"To the Voters of the Diablo Area:

"After careful consideration the Board of Directors of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation urges you to vote YES on County Proposition A, the county road bond issue, because:

"1. — FUNDS AVAILABLE from gasoline tax and auto registration from the county general tax fund have not been sufficient to improve, or even to maintain, our county roads.

"2. — THE BOND ISSUE will provide SPECIFIC funds to put 78 miles of major county roads into good shape.

"3. — THE FUNDS previoiusly used for ALL county road work can now be used primarily to improve the local county roads.

"4. — IF THE ROAD bonds fail to pass, the greater portion of an increasing county tax for road purposes will be required to improve these major roads, and there will be little available for local roads.

"5. — THE COUNTY BOARD of Supervisors has stated that the total county tax for roads will not be any greater, including the cost of bond redemption, than the present road tax rate. This will be possible because the bonds will provide a greater amount of money now, with repayment spread over a 25-year period, and will be shared alike by present and future residents.

"Diablo Highway Improvement Federation.
"By Elliot J. Hartman, chairman."

After Cartoons, Those Lions Roar For Installation

Having learned about the sedious side of cartooning, Orinda Lions are now set for entertainment mixed with the serious business of annual installation of officers.

Which is just another way of saying that at Wednesday nights meeting the Orinda Lions Club heard Lee Susman, Oakland Tribune sports cartoonist, describe the hard work in his profession, and that the Lions are roaring in anticipation of next Wednesday nights joint installation dinner-dance with Lafayette and Danville Lions at Diablo Country Club.

The meeting was the first at the Lions new meeting place, the Orinda Roost.

High price of singing, when the vocalizing is rendered by the judiciary, was demonstrated when Dr. Herbert Wise gladly forked over $1.50, instead of the usual $1, to the Lions' blind fund for the privilege of having Superior Court Judges Harold Jacoby and Norman A. Gregg, fellow Lions, sing "Happy Birthday" to him.

NEXT WEDNESDAY'S program will start at 8 p. m. Walter Friberg will be installed as Orinda Lions president, to succeed Jerry McKinley; Kenneth Courtright as first vice-president, Bart McMahon as second vice-president, Joe Navone as third vice-president, Jack Cooper as secretary and James Lucas as treasurer.

Directors for the coming year are Nathan Gray and Rudy Rasmussen, Lion Tamer Jack Thies and Tail Twister Tom Pauli.

Glorietta Potluck Has Serious Side!

Glorietta Improvement Association will hold a pot-luck supper at Orinda Community Church next Thursday for a threefold purpose:

(1) To enjoy good food; (2) to have a "get-acquainted" meeting and to meet the new officers; (3) to discuss such important matters as roads and home plans approval.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cayting are co-chairmen of the event, and they say that with such a trio of reasons, Glorietta area residents can't help but have a well-rounded evening.

Primary Election Vote Expected To Be Heavy Tuesday

Paralleling Contra Costa County's population growth during the past two years, the election turnout Tuesday is expected to shatter all records for the area, according to spokesmen from both political parties.

Which party will benefit from the expected heavy vote is debatable, However, spokesmen for both Democratic and Republican groups hold that the Primary election will prove their respective group has the power in this area.

The Tuesday elections will, in addition to filling both Congressional and Assembly seats, go a long way toward selecting delegates for the November Presidential elections.

On Tuesday's ballot are candidates running for election for 11 positions. One measure, the Contra Costa Highway Road Bond Proposal, will be voted on also.

Be of Good Cheer - 'Twas Warmer Back in 1951

If it's any comfort to you, it was warmer at this time last year in Orinda.

At least, we have the weather man's say-so on that. As proof he reported the following:

For the week of May 22 through Wednesday, maximum temperature was 93 degrees, last Friday. Minimum temperature was 44, on both May 22 and last Tuesday.

"So what?" you ask. So — in 1951, for the comparable week, maximum was 97, on May 25; minimum was 45, on May 28.

Rainfall? Nary a drop for the week ending Wednesday.

Baldwin Workers Offer Voting Aid

A group of Orinda women, campaigning for John Baldwin for Congress, have set up a clearing house for precinct workers on primary election day next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Melvin Jacobus, 275 Orinda Highway.

Any voter who has no way of reaching the polls, or any mother who wishes baby-sitting service, is asked to call Orinda 4931 for transportation service.

Precinct workers are asked to be available on June 3 for any services that may be required of them.

County OK's Site Of St. Stephen's

The Protestant Episcopal Bishop's application for a land use permit for St. Stephen's Church's new site was approved by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

Recommended by the Planning Commission, the request was for an O.K. to construct a church with facilities for a Sunday School on a 9.06-acre parcel on the southeast side of Honey Hill Road, near Charles Hill Road.

The land, purchased by the church from East Bay Municipal Utility District, is between Haciendas Del Orinda and the Charles Hill area, an R-A section.

Assembly Candidates Answer Nine Vital Questions

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

WELL AREN'T WE THE JOURNALISTIC GYMNAST, though! Recently all alone and unaided, we made George Hauerken a candidate for the Assembly. This came as quite some surprise to Mr. Hauerken, who thought he was running for the Republican Central Committee. Now we have considered it carefully and have decided that Mr. Hauerken should be permitted to run for anything he wants to, and if we make any more switches like that we will have to run for cover, so back he goes — and if anyone else wants a free unauthorized ride on the wrong end of the ballot, be sure to let us know, because we are just the kid who can fix it up for you.

And speaking of fixing things up — do you remember that old tune, "who takes care if the caretaker's daughter while the caretaker's busy taking care?" Well, what we want to know is — who takes the fire to the firekeepers department so the fire keepers won't have to go to the fire? —Sort of a mountain to Mohammed idea — but evidently this was more if a molehill than mountain, so Mrs. Ted Beckett took her fire to the station instead of asking the fire boys to bring their pretty red wagon up to her house on Davis read, where the fire was.

Explanation — Lady tosses out cigarette which lands in back seat of Mrs. B's automobile — smoldering results refuse to wield to couple of buckets of water tossed on same — Mrs. B. considers advisability of calling fire boys but thinks better of it and so drives horseless carriage into Orinda fire station, thereby setting fire boys back on their rockers because of reversal of customary preceedure. Now let's not have any more of this sort of thing, so that the fire boys won't get spoiled and think that everyone should bring their fires to the station.

Which reminds us of the predicement of a friend of ours who set up shop in the Village and unknowingly inherited last year's fire department phone number. The first call he received announced that there was a brush fire, curiously enough, on a hillside near his home. He became panicky and asked the caller if she had called his wife — and for heaven's sake, where were his two children?

The caller didn't seem to give a hang about the family status of the supposed fire chief, and it continued on into one of those regular radio-like plots where everyone misunderstands everyone else and they each end up thinking the other "teched."

HILLTOP DWELLERS — NEWLY ARRIVED from San Francisco: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strickland, whose new home on Vista del Orinda atop El Toyonal is supposed to be the highest house in Orinda.

Hollow dwellers (Sleepy Hollow): The William Brobecks with Billy, Kathy and Betts Hayes, who will keep Mrs. B. pretty busy going to Mother's Cub meetings for quite a spell — age differential — 13 months to 15 years.

THREE OF US ARE VERY EXCITED about the Kirk Miles' trip to Europe — that is, Mr. Miles, Mrs. Miles and us — because it all sounded so thrilling in spite of the fact that our phone conversation was continuously and amusingly, from our point of view) interupted by small children who were so excited at having their parents home that they couldn't bare to part with them for a 30-minute phone session.

That sort of thing goes on in our family constantly. Not that we have had any trips to Europe for the last 20 or 30 years, but it seems that every time we get on the phone the young can think of more important questions, such as "Where did you hide my collection of favorite rocks?"

Well, anyway, off to London went the Miles'. There they saw the following plays: Lyric Review (somewhat akin to our Straw Hat Review — giving a British idea of the British), Little Hut, The Vortetx, King Lear, Much Ado About Nothing (the most beautifully produced with particular emphasis on costumes and rotating stage effects), The Constant Couple, Lady Susan, Constant Lover and Deep Blue Sea.

Next they rented a car and toured the Lake district and were in Edinborough for Easter. Then to Amsterdam, where they connected with the Seaver Ballards of Orinda. It was tulip season — also they were impressed with the gaity of the livestock. The work horses fairly pranced with enthusiasm and the cows leaped and ran around the fields, which, if you have never seen it, is quite something.

Then the open air museum, where there are replicas of all types of Dutch houses from ancient fishing shacks on up. In the Hague they saw a play, "Eens in de honder jaars," which translates to "The Moon is Blue" — get it? — "Once in a Blue Moon," Only their words don't add up to the same thing as ours.

And upon the subject of children — in England they are definitely of the "seen and not heard" variety but in Holland they are all over the place and are indulged even more than ours.

Delft, which was old and delightful; Belgium and France; Rouen, Mont St. Michel, Caen, Ghent, Chartres, Poitiers, Limoges, Toulouse, Carassonne (medieval and dating up the Visigoths, Roman and Crusades, with ample evidence of each still remaining), Aix-en-Province, Cannes, Nice and Monte Carlo.

The Italian Riviera and main Italian cities, then off to Paris alone because the Ballards had to go back to Amsterdam (darn it). Curious experience on the train — seated in the dining car next to a Finnish business man and a French monk, the Miles' were discussing how interesting it would be if they could talk to their table mates. This seemed to give the Finnish gentleman courage, so he remarked about the weather (what would we ever do without that one?) in a jammbled combination of Finnish and English. Then the monk got into the mellee by offering Mrs. M. a cigarette. It was so strong it almost knocked her out colder than a mackerel but she stood her ground and in due course offered him an American cigarette. Then in order to polish off this beautiful relationship in the most possible picturesque fashion, the monk gave the Miles' an old Roman coin which had been uearthed in that area — a very nice tribute indeed to a charming couple who were creating international good fellowship in a dining car.

AT THIS POINT A PERSONAL INTERJECTION — Since Mrs. Dan Sheldon has been recovering from pneumonia we have been typing this column ourselves. Having no typing machinery of our own, the William Fosters are kind enough to let us use theirs, so every Monday morning we trot into son Joe Foster's room and bang away for hours until said column gets finished.

Being inadept at this sort of thing, we concentrate so hard that the slightest sound almost jars us loose from our moorings, so fancy what happened to us just now when we were made aware, audibly, that unbeknownst to us, Foster junior had had a Swiss coo-coo clock installed in his room since we were here the previous Monday. The 12 o'clock coo-co nearly bounced us right out the window.

DID YOU EVER SEE A GOLF COURSE on top of a table? At the Diablo Ladies' Open Golf doings the luncheon table was decorated by members Armstrong and West with a complete miniature replica of the Diablo course — houses along the edge, Hagstrom's barn, the rough everyone gets into eventually, and on the 18th green the little dog Queenie, who is laways there to greet his mistress and anyone else who happens to be on the course that day.

The following golfers from Orinda who were there can tsetify as to its cleverness and the fact that it was really a wonderful day: Mesdames Art Somers, Stephen Jensen, Frank Fee and Ted Beckett.

WHAT IS IT THAT BLOCKS TRAFFIC at high noon in front of the Orinda Union Grammar School, what is it that causes mothers to drop what they are doing like a hot potato and dash for the school, what is it that has mothers sewing fancy pants and twirly skirts for days before the event, what is it that causes eager little performers to almost fall on their faces during the performance because they are trying to spot their mothers in the audience, what is it that makes you glad you live in this country where this particular time is for fun and dancing?

Why, May Day, of course.

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. James Freeman of Las Cascades Road opened their beautiful gardens for a rip-snorting cocktail party.

What beats us is that "opened their beautiful gardens" phrase when you are obviously referring to beautiful gardens which have been wide open ever since their inception. Another one is "Mrs. Such and Such entertained for visiting fire lady Mrs. So and So and covers were laid for eight." Can't you just see the old darlings sitting around — all eight of them covered up? And there is one more — Mr. and Mrs. Fiddle Faddle (of the upstate Fiddle Faddles) just hit town for the celebration of young nephew Fiddle Faddle's "nuptials." Now THERE is a word — have you ever tried to repeat that one in a hurry 10 times and then wonder what it means?

Well, anyway, the James Freemans' lovely wide open gardens are certainly a divine spot for a Sunday afternoon cocktail and Hors d' oeuvre party and Mrs. Hostess Freeman should turn up for all subsequent parties wearing a blue dress and orchids — most effective.

Another party last weekend. Bob Harrison assembled the following Juniors from Acalanes for dinner before the Senior Ball: Marilyn Davis, Sandy White, Sharon Eggerts, Janet Kennedy, Sandy Humboldt, Leslie Heche, Judy Hall, Jeff Dunham, Bill Bedard, Jim Robertson, Dave Grieves and Ben Randall.

Mother Harrison, who certainly deserves an E for effort, dished out baked ham, spaghetti, green salad, Swedish rolls and approximately 11 quarts of milk. Then off to the party, then guess what — to the El Nido for something to eat.

Well, gentle reader, if you haven't registered by now it is no one's fault but your own.

That is all.

WOMEN'S GUILD of Orinda Community Church will hold its annual spring luncheon and program next Tuesday at the church's Fellowship Hall. Planning the event, left to right, are Mrs. W. C. Branch, program chairman; Mrs. U. B. Smith, ways and means chairman; Mrs. R. H. Phelps, Guild president, and Mrs. J. E. Almond, decorations chairman. The "blueprinting" session was at Mrs. Smith's home.

The Pilgrim Fellowship of Orinda Community Church entertained the eighth grade Sunday School class at a picnic Sunday at Stinson Beach. About 50 were taken in two large trucks, one driven by Ray Fowler and the other by Ed Turk.

The young people swam, played and sunbaked. In Stinson Park they had a wienie roast and lots of other good food. Accompanying the group were Mrs. Turk and Margaret Fahay.

'Frontier' Really Frolicked for Aid To Therapy Center

Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will receive generous support from the Orinda Orioles and Tanagers as a result of the very successful "Frontier Frolic" held last Saturday evening.

Five hundred and 50 Orindans and friends dined, danced and "frolicked" in a frontier atmosphere at Castle Rock Park. The tables to accommodate this large crowd were decked in gay colored cloths and set among the large oak trees.

On the tables were bags of roll-your-own tobacco and small bottles of wine to add the final touch to the dinner, which everyone agreed was truly deliciolus.

The weather man proved very cooperative and provided a pleasant May evening for the occasion; and the crowd in jeans, denims and summery cottons lingered late to enpay dancing. Special features of the dancing were the "whiskey waltzes" and "cake walks"; prizes of cakes and whiskey were given. And winner of the hindquarter of beef was Mrs. E. L. Bargones.

Much credit for the success of the affair is due the various committees of the Orinda auxiliaries under the leadership of Mrs. William Witter of the Tanagers and Mrs. D. C. Peacock Jr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilman of the Orioles, chairmen for the event, and also to Mrs. Alexander Morris and Mrs. Calvin Hagstrom, presidents of the two groups.

While the Tanagers and Orioles can understand the desires of guests to collect souvenirs of such a gala occasion, they would like to to explain that the lanterns, wagon wheels, halter, cow bells and other items missing after the party were not expendable decorations but personal property of members, and request the return of such items.

GI Party Clipped Merrily Along . . .

The Clippers, a unit of Orinda Community Church, was host to "Operation Houseparty" last Sunday.

According to the boys, the organizers of the project, which takes boys from Camp Stoneman Hospital and gives them a day of civilian life complete with home-cooked meals, tours of the vicinity and a party complete with young hostesses, had outdone itself again.

BECAUSE OF THE Army shutdown of all except essential military transportation, Mt. Diablo and Pittsburg Red Cross station wagons were called out, and Orinda's Emory Davis and James G. Hupp added their family cars to the parade to and from the hospital.

The John Ogdens, Daniel Popovichs, Willis C. Branches, A. C. Flenners, D. E. Winklers (Mrs. Winkler, head of the Clippers, planned the day), J. F. Campbells, Robert McFarlands, Herbert W. Dustins Richard Fayruns ,Stanley Mijkahs and Kenneth Gelwixes were the families to whom the boys went for that home-cooked meal and special treat of family life.

AT 5:30 THE GROUP started gathering at the Community Church recreation room on top of the hill, where the James G. Hupps, Don Andersons, Kenwood Hauters, Al Styles', J. P. Lairds, William P. Motts, Fred Rusts, William Thurstons, Ralph Halls and Howard Dails had provided a buffet supper. Mrs. T. J. Fahay played the piano while the boys sang, danced or just relaxed with well-satisfied grins on their faces.

Other contributors to the evening's buffet included the Carl Gravells, John Ellengers, G. L. Sheldons and the Ted Schillings.

Next Tuesday's arfair starts at 12:30 o'clock in the Church Fellowship Hall which, with the patio, will be transformed into a "Summer Garden" under the artistic direction or Mrs. Almond and her assistants.

A delicious luncheon will be prepared by Guild members under the direction of Mrs. Gore, Mrs. James Hupp and Mrs. Andrew Blalock.

MRS. FOLEY is a graduate of the University of Washington, where she received a Master's degree in Drama. She has done professional and little theater work here and in Seattle, and has read before such groups as Berkeley Women's Club, Arlington Women's Club, Y. W. C. A., Stanford Mothers' Club and fraternity and faculty clubs on the University of California campus and elsewhere in the East Bay.

Auxiliary 'Show' Nets over $400 To St. Stephen's

More than $400 net profit was realized by the Women's Auxiliary for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church of Orinda from the benefit performance of Mrs. Edgar Whealen in her monodrama based on the life of Jessie Benton Fremont, which took place last Friday evening at Orinda Grammar School.

In sympathy with the goals of the mission church and the aspirations of the congregation for a building of its own in which to worship, Mrs. Whealen donated her talents.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson, newly-elected president of the Auxiliary, has expressed gratitude to all who contributed to make the occasion a success, and trusts all the members will enjoy a fine vacation until the Women's Auxiliary resumes its meetings in the fall.

Orindans Donate More Than Ton To Clothes Drive

More than a ton of clothing, shoes and bedding was contributed by Orindans in the recent two-week relief drive of the American Friends Service Committee, it was announced this week by Mrs. A. W. Elkinton, Orinda drive chairman.

The annual drive by the Quaker organization, for aid of needy persons overseas, ended last Saturday. The donations, destined for Korea, with some to go to Japan and Germany, have been brought to an A. F. S. C. warehouse in San Francisco, on the first leg of their journey.

In announcing the result of the drive, Mrs. Elkinton expressed thanks to all Orinda residents who helped make the campaign so successful, and also to:

Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff, for enlisting the coperation of the children at Orinda and Glorietta Schools and sending notices home with the youngsters; Orinda Community Church, for the use of the Jonathan Room as a collection depot and storage room, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Booth, for loaning the truck in which the contributions were transported to the San Francisco warehouse.

Good Reason for Troop 207 Pride!

If there are feathers in caps, the lads of Orinda Boy Scout Troop 207 are wearing plenty of 'em. The reason: The boys are still glowing from their excellent participation in the recent Mt. Diablo Council Boy Scout Circus at El Cerrito High School athletic field.

Forty scouts from the troop took part in the two-evening event. A major project of their demonstration was erection of a signal tower. Also, pack mules and bikes were used in a display of travel methods in the "great open spaces."

Scoutmaster Gerry Cullen and Assistant Scoutmaster Bud Thurston directed the boys at the Circus. Various committeemen also aided in preparations. Needless to say, the adult leaders are as happy about the whole thing as are the scouts.

PATTER ON THE PARTY LINE

By PATRICIA JELTON

ANYBODY FOR GOLF? If not, might as well leaf over to the want-ads for the next half-page or so. That is, if you're really with us. We often wonder if we are maybe all alone.

Well, anyway, we're really all gone on this golf deal right now on account of last Friday we played Bobby Dawson and Peggy Patch, two of the best women golfers in the country, for the championship of Orinda Country Club. The fact that Peg had broken the course record the week before with a right smart 71, which is three under par, deterred us not at all. Good old Patricia Mitty was right in there on every shot.

Of course, nobody but us realized that we were in the match. As far as they could see, we were simply tagging around Referee Hi Hennings, current club champ, taking notes and assisting with the scorekeeping. But believe me, my birds, we were making every shot. And perfect as we made them, in our mind's eye, darned if one or another of these young ladies didn't clobber us on every hole. If you want to know the truth, I think even Mr. Hennings had his big, blue eyes opened a couple of times.

We developed quite an accurate system of scorekeeping as we went along. It consisted of sidling up to Mr. Hennings as the deciding putt dropped into the cup and inquiring in a blase tone, "What did YOU get there?" Not that the girls used enough strokes to make it difficult to count. Far from it. It was just the confusion of getting our scores mixed up with their scores, you understand.

Well, on the first nine, the girls are tied with a couple of 39's, two over par. Peg parred everything straight through except the seventh, when the bogey man caught up with her double strength. Bobby was trapped by said bogey man three times but tossed in a bird on that charming little number 4 to even things up.

We were still trying to figure out how we could have beat them both when the atom bomb dropped. Bobby steps up to the tee on the 10th, you know, that's right down the steps from the Foster's front porch where most of us leave souvenirs for posterity in the creek, and with the greatest of ease she dros that ball on the green a scant 19 inches from the cup. (We know, we measured.) Well, here's Peg out there with a very creditable drive, but still a good approach to the green. "Get the pin, boy!" she shouts bravely, but this was just asking too much. Down goes an eagle for Bobby.

Now we step up to the 11th tee. Bobby, with no effort at all, places one out by the tree, while Peg's is as long, but hooks out into the rough. While we are deciding that it's much too long to go for it, Bobby whips out her little four wood and smacks it up there stony. Two eagles in a row! Even the great go down under such pressure, and on the 12th, Peg puts her tee shot in the creek. First time she's ever been in there; doesn't even know what the penalty is. As for ourselves, we know that little baranca like the back of our hand. So Peg bogies the next three, and Bobby cards two pars and a bird, and it's all over on the 14th, with Bobby five under as she goes, on the second nine. Brother!

It's been a hard match to gallery as it was impossible to have any partiality, they're both such great sportswomen and great golfers. It was won in true championship style by a true champion. It was with great pride and pleasure that the women's golfing group presented her with the silver coffee service as trophy.

AFTER LUNCHEON ALL PRIZES for this tournament, which had been going on for four days of that week, were awarded by Tournament Chairman Peg Bannister. Little Ellie Sharp won, defeated in the championship flight; in the second flight, Marion Fee, winner, Isis Holmes, runner-up, and Jasmine Jensen, defeated; third flight, Jake Parker, winner, Esther Bacon, runner-up, and Liz Folliard, lefeated.

In fourth flight, Reba Kilgo was very happy to carry home the hurricane lamps as winner to show pa, Peggy Bannister runner-up, and Barbara Stone, defeated. As usual, Barbara took every one of her matches to the 19th.

Herm Small, last year's champ, won consolation.

Even our own Mrs. Mitty walked off with an impressive gold statue for handicap cut, which we are now making the most of as it must be toted back at end of month. When your scores are like ours, it only takes one good card in have world-shaking repercussions.

To add to the proportions of our complex inferior, we happened to pick up Steve Platt, Dee Tolles, Jay Bridges and a few of the lads who have been caddying and playing the course on Mondays. Well, honest to goodness, it's very disheartening. We've been playing that doggone course longer than we care to say, and apparently the only way we are ever going to break 100 is by our own system of scorekeeping, which is done by only counting the strokes we relly meant. And here these kids go out, play a few times, and get a 45 on the back nine. One of them got into the 80's, but as they explained, he should have, as he had already played eight times before. Ah, youth!

Now that the ladies have cleared the decks, the gentlemen have taken over at Orinda for their championship tournament. (Yes, the ladies do allow the men to use the course once in awhile). This looks to be a very exciting playoff, as we still have in the hunning such notables as Frankie McCann, Bob Hoyt, who, incidentally, just became the proud papa of another baby girl; Tommy Ray and, of course, Hi Hennings, the going favorite despite the fact that Frank Brunk took him to the 20th over the weekend.

Your own Patricia Schoenfeld will be on hand to give you the news as it happens, so stand by.

THIS IS ABSOLUTELY THE NICEST THING we've heard in a long time. You know, we're convinced that raising our kids out here in the country is the healthiest thing in the world, both mentally and physically, but sometimes we wonder about the little niceties, especially where little girls are concerned, now that they come home from school and play with their horses instead of their dolls.

Well, something happened that should set all minds at ease on that score. Helen Dinwiddie and Elaine Gogstadt, Vallecito fifth graders, decided that their moms should be entertained in fitting style on Mothers' Day, so what could be more fitting than a formal tea? All preparations were carried on with the strictest secrecy. Even the fact that Helen didn't quite trust her memory, and left little notes to herself around the house for a couple of weeks prior to the event, didn't let the cat out of the bag, although one that Mrs. Dinwiddie found in the bread box, "one hole lofe," had her guessing.

They invited friends and neighbors of the Mesdames Dinwiddie and Gogstadt with their young daughters, but the husbands and sons of the family really had a rough time of that Sunday. Jim didn't even get any lunch until 3 o'clock, having been relegated to the service yard for the day. Even their teacher was excluded, due to the fact that he happens to be Mr. Murphy. Mrs. Vossler, however, was an honored guest, in fact won the prize of a bouquet of flowers, which, of all things, was exactly as the girls had hoped.

Both young ladies were looking very smart in their best taffeta dresses. Mrs. John Funk was asked to pour at the beautifully appointed tea table which was laden with lovely open-faced sandwiches and cup cakes which the girls had made themselves. Then all repaired to the garden for fudge, also whipped up for the occasion by Helen and Elaine.

The whole day was a huge success, and please don't let this get around, but the girls are toying with the idea of repeating the whole thing on Father's Day.

AMAZED TO SEE THE PERCENTAGE of Contra Costa contributors winning merits at the Garden Show. And the contribution of time of the local ladies to worthy efforts: the Junior League making appointments for blood donations and the Children's Hospital workers selling programs and postcards.

Happy Valley's Harry Jackson walking off with first award for best in the show, which was won by Hidden Valley's Vic Bergeron last year. Awards for Jack Schneider and Stewart Wade, Jack McDonnell (where did he ever get those exquisite brass herons?), Sunset Nursery, Evie Lamb's and Do Bee's table arrangements for Garden Club, Eileen Pond's children's exhibit, Jinny Neuman's P.T.A. arrangements, Lafayette Girl Scouts under Mrs. W. H. Mordy, Floyd Cowan, landscape architect of Happy Valley, and that ain't all.

Sunset Magazine came through the valley recently and took colored pictures of the Alfred Nipkows' fantastic clematis bush climbing up their porch.

In case you're wondering what those stunning containers for succulents in Harry Jackson's Pacifica exhibit were, guess what, boiler tops!

Don't know where you get them or how you get them home, but sure that Harry will help you if you're interested.

A LOVELY TEA given by Mrs. Homer Yaeger, ably assisted by daughter Ann, home for school holidays from Santa Barbara. That usual Yaeger festive board with Nita's unsurpassed cheese puffs and many indescribable goodies whipped up by Ann.

We are attracting attention with large black straw cartwheel and gloves (a change from the usual jeans and sweatshirt), but lose the spotlight entirely when Mrs. Ray Tolles arrives with biggest and most stunning hat we have yet to see. She's practicing being citified for June trek home to Little Rock for sister's wedding.

SEE YOU at the polls next Tuesday! Don't forget!

France To Give Kaiser Legion Of Honor Award

When Henry J. Kaiser, famed industrialist, receives Frances Legion of Honor award next Thursday in Oakland, the community of Lafayette will share in the glory of "Henry J. Kaiser Day" of the Oakland Centennial celebration.

For Lafayette is where Kaiser lives. He and Mrs. Kaiser ocupy their spacious, Hawaiian-motif residence on Pine Lane in Happy Valley. They moved into the dwelling after its completion last year.

OF COURSE, France's naming Kaiser a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor does not mention Lafayette — the selection is based on Kaiser's "world-famed industrial success and production for World War II and the current defense program."

But Henry J. Kaiser, whose far-flung "empire" includes over 100 plants and facilities in 20 different industries and enterprises, producing more than 200 products and services, to the tune of an annual business exceeding a half-billion dollars, picked Lafayette as the ideal spot for home.

NOT ONLY THAT, but Permanente Hospital, come July 1, will take over the Art and Garden Center in Walnut Creek, for construction of a modern hospital there, to serve this rapidly growing area. So it's not only Lafayette, but this entire area, that feels a special glow of pride in the international honor to be bestowed upon "Henry J."

The presentation will be made at a formal banquet at Scottish Rite Auditorium in Oakland, by an official envoy from the Republic of France. The ceremony will climax "Henry J. Kaiser Day," sponsored as part of the Oakland Centennial celebration by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

Oakland was chosen as the scene of the presentation, rather than Paris or Washington, D.C., because Oakland is the world headquarters of the Kaiser enterprises. Oakland Mayor Clifford Rishell and Chamber of Commerce President Walter L. Eggert wired French Ambassador Henri Bonnet that "there could be no more fitting place to present the honors than in Oakland."

San Jose Visitors Give Program Here

It was announced that the group had received an invitation from the Lafayette Women's Republican Club to attend the breakfast for Senator Knowland at El Nido this Saturday.

The meeting was closed with the serving of refreshments by the hosaess, Mrs. Jones.

Lights Installed At Charles Hill Road Intersection

Two large lights have been installed at the crest of Charles Hill on Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

The lights, mounted on 30-foot standards, will illuminate the turnout intersection with Charles Hill Road.

One light on either side of the riad is to provide illumination for the small intersection, the scene of several minor accidents and at least one pedestrian fatality in recent years.

The lights, actuated by photo-electric cells to turn on automatically after dark, are for illumination purposes only and not intended for traffic control.

MILLER KNOWS THE SCORE ---BUT NOT OUT LOUD

By Virginia Gardner and Jack Young
Daily People's World Staff Writers

LOS ANGELES

State Sen.-elect George Miller, Contra Costa county, introduced a note of optimism which didn't sound synthetic, as so much Democratic optimism does these days, at the county central committee meeting the other night.

Up north, he said, "we have an excellent chance of dumping two Republican reactionaries, Rep. Hubert B. Scudder, who was a real estate commissioner for years, and Rep. John J. Allen Jr., who has been misrepresenting the East Bay area for years."

Now it happens that Sen.-elect Miller as well as the two Democrats who have a good chance of nosing out these two Republicans, both with horrible voting records, all cross-filed Independent Progressive party —Sterling J. Norgard, in the big first district, and Buell G. Gallagher of Berkeley.

"All of which goes to show," Miller said later when we talked to him, "that the people who said you were sunk if you cross-filed IPP were crazy."

Muffled drums

But he made no mention of IPP before the county committee. And when are the committee progressives going to demand real support and work for IPP candidates wherever there is no progressive Democratic candidate?

The snappy young Senator will be here for the balance of the campaign with offices in the Alexandria hotel, working to get out a "no" vote on Proposition No. 3, which would in effect repeal the full crew law.

He also told the Democrats that here in Los Angeles county "you have a good chance to elect three and possibly five Congressmen." He wouldn't say which three he meant.

What Miller stressed was that wherever he has been, up north or down here in this county where 42 percent of the state's voters are, "you find our candidates again saying liberal things, and winning back some of the support we had lost."

Privately, Miller has been telling folks that if candidates will not forget that they are liberals they will have a chance to win over reactionary Republicans, but otherwise not.

It's Up to You..

Two weeks ago, California Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan reported that 138,116 persons had registered to vote in Contra Costa County for the June 3rd Primaries.

The figure looks impressive, except for one fact — one-half of the registered voters will never get to the polls on election day.

In 1948, only 51 percent of the registered voters in the U. S. turned out to vote. A 60 percent turnout in California was slightly better, but still shows that in California 40 percent of the voting population doesn't think enough of the "right to vote" to expend the energy to go to the polls.

The record for voting in primaries is usually worse — despite the fact that "good government begins at home."

In the 1948 presidential election, 2,692,462 Californians of voting age either failed or refused to vote. The figure represents a group as large as the combined populations of Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland and San Diego.

The often-heard comment: "What diffrence can my one vote make?" is a dangerous philosophy, especially when two million voters operate on the same theory and starve the ballot box.

The tendency of voters to minimize the importance of the single vote brought the following warning from James S. Kemper, chairman of the Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Company and former president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce:

"To men who love liberty, those who starve the ballot box are no less despicable than those who stuff it. Ballot boxes starved or stuffed result in false elections. They set false governments on wrong courses. They place great power into the hands of little groups. They allow selfishness and greed, coupled with zeal, to gain control of our welfare and destiny.

"Small elections are big opportunities for those who are incompetent and for those who are corrupt. The final result, however, can only be the death and decay of democracy."

We urge you to vote June 3. We urge you to seek out your neighbors and ask them to vote. The bread of democracy is the vote. Give sustenance to your government.

School Official Tells Enrollment Fastest Growing

Four times as many students are entering schools in Contra Costa County as are graduating, School Superintendent B. O. Wilson disclosed recently.

He also pointed out that for the first time the number of elementary grade school children in the county schools has surpassed that of San Francisco.

WILSON SAID THE LARGEST enrollment for a single grade in Contra Costa county is 8301 in kindergarten, with progressive decrease in each grade thereafter to the 2318 seniors in high school.

In the grades one through eight, the county has enrolled at the present time a total of 53,960 students while San Francisco grades number 51,567, Wilson said.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY gained in school enrollment 12 per cent during the period between October, 1950 and October, 1951, which compares with the state average of seven per cent.

Being the fifth largest county, Contra Costa also led the other four in increase in enrollment for that period, Wilson pointed out.

A GROUP OF DIABLO VALLEY Area Senior Girl Scouts prove they are just as adept at pitching tents and making preparations for outdoor activities as are their male rivals, the Boy Scouts. Members of the Diablo Valley Area Scouts will hold their first inter-council troop primitive encampment this Saturaday and Sunday at Sky Meadows, Big Basin. A group held a meeting recently to make plans and rules for the camp with representatives of the Senior Troops of Santa Clara Valley Council. Hayward Area Council and the Diablo Valley Group. In the photo above, Pat Yeager is shown inside the tent, while Moonyeen Spiher holds the flap open and Nancy Michelson stands by apparently laughing at a witty remark made by one of the girls.

Hauters To Leave

Much to the regret of their many Orinda friends, Mr. and Mrs. Kenwood Hauter, Woody and Katherine, will be leaving Orinda for Fullerton soon after school closes.

Hauter has been transferred south by the Butler Manufacturing Company, by which he has been employed for several years.

Full List of Winners at Rotary Field Day

Parakeet Proves Effectiveness of Our Classifieds!

The G. F. Wagners and their two children, Georgie, 7, and Judy, 3, of 3722 Sundale Road in Sunset Village, Lafayette, are happy to have their chartreuse parakeet, Bobby, back home.

They recently placed a classified ad in the Contra Costa Shopping News and the Suns lost and found column and got a call from Bill Fletcher the first day the ad ran in the paper.

Bobby, who has flying reign of the Wagner home from his bird play pen, flew out the door on a Tuesday. Mrs. Wagner missed him that evening and promptly put an ad in the paper.

Bobby flew in the door of the Appliance Center on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, on the same day he left home. Bill Fletcher saw the little green bird and took him home with him that night and fed him. On Thursday the Fletchers noticed the ad in the Shopping News and promptly called Bobby's owners.

Bobby is a native of Hawaii. The Wagners brought him from the Islands at Christmas time, 1950, for a present for their son, Georgie. Since then Bobby has been a tourist to Denver and through the Grand Canyon with the Wagners. Mrs. Wagner said she thought more pictures were taken of Bobby perching on Georgie's shoulder than there were of the Grand Canyon.

PREVENTS MANY STRAINS

There is a degree of truth, perhaps, in the charge that car makers are responsible for the situation that makes it necessary to slam the automobile door in order to close it, points out the National Automobile Club. Car owners, however, are not entirely innocent, and a little oil or graphite applied to door locks and strikers will demonstrate this to the satisfaction of the most skeptical.

Public Health Association Sets Budget of $38,729 for 1952-53

Budget and program approval for 952-53 were major items at the recent meeting of the executive committee of the Contra Costa Public Health Association. Mrs. George Vurek, president, presided.

REV. RAY GIBBONS of New York City, director of the National Council for Social Action of the Congregational Christian Churches, was guest preacher at Orinda Community Church last Sunday. His subject was "Our Christian Responsibility."

For the year's activities $38,729 has been budgeted and distributed as follows:

Tuberculosis activities, $22,459.55; administration, $6630; Seal Sale campaign, $8,514.45; organization, $1125.

The books of the association were audited by J. Clark Householder, C.P.A., on April 7. They are open to inspection by anyone interested.

EIGHTY-FOUR per cent of the money raised by the annual Christmas Seal Sale remains in the county for use in the local tuberculosis program.

Among items in the T.B. work is rehabilitation, which includes the expanded program of occupational therapy for tuberculosis patients at the County Hospital. Through an arrangement with the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, the Center's occupational therapist, Mrs. L. June Webb, is being employed half time by the Public Health Association.

WORKING UNDER direction of Dr. Louise Girtman, in cooperation with the medical social service and nursing departments, Mrs. Webb will direct and instruct hand crafts and other diversional activities for patients on Wards E and I and in the homes of some patients discharged to home medical care.

Committee chairmen appointed by Mrs. Vurek are:

Budget and finance, Leroy W. Beede, Martinez; Seal Sale, Mrs. H. B. Keating, Martinez; Medical Advisory, Dr. C. J. Hart, Walnut Creek; History, Mrs. Chester Hook, Concord; Constitution and By-laws, G. C. Stanley, Rodeo; Personnel Practices, W. O. Barnes, Associated; Hospital Facilities, James D. Ryan, Martinez; Evaluation Study, Clifton E. Brooks, Lafayette; Rehabilitation, Mrs. Arthur Wood, Martinez; Office, Mrs. H. P. Mudd, Martinez.

Junior League Show To Portray Fashions

Last of the Junior League luncheon and fashion shows at the Art and Garden Center in Walnut Creek will be held next Wednesday. An early sellout is expected, so prompt reservations, to be placed with the Center, are requested.

Mesdames Herbert Hills Jr., Victor Millar, Douglas Chappell, Martin Holt, Frank Smith and Edward Blasdell will model. Virginia Hammond is preparing the clothes, concentrating on summer necessities, including bathing suits.

Hostesses will be Mesdames James Black, George Rice, Lee Kidwell, Howell Turner, Milton Vail and Leland Scott.

Three-Day Visit

The G. Chester Browns enjoyed the three-day visit of Mrs. Brown's musician son, Jesse K. Smith, and his wife, of Riverside, last week.

LOOSE BELT

On some types of motors, where the water pump and fan are belt driven, a loss of cooling efficiency may be due to the belt becoming loose and slipping on the pulleys.

Combined Orchestras Will Give Concert at Acalanes Thursday

Two innovations will be offered music-lovers next Thursday night when a symphony orchestra of more than 60 members presents an outstanding program at Acalanes High School gym.

For one thing, it will be the first time an orchestra of such size and organized in this county makes its appearance. This will be the premier performance of the combined Acalanes Adult Orchestra and the Martinez Adult Orchestra of Contra Costa Junior College East Campus.

For another thing, every person in the audience will, in effect, have a "ringside seat." This is made possible by having the orchestra in the center of the gym floor and placing the seats in large tiered circles.

In addition to these two factors, there's the program, starting at 8 p.m.. It includes the Egmont Overture of Beethoven, the Queen Symphony by Had Haydn and other numbers — and Nancy Carlson, Acalanes senior, as soloist with the orchestra in the First Movement of Tschwaikowsy's B Minor Concerto for Piano and Orchestra.

Oscar Busch is director of the Acalanes Adult Orchestra. Alan Scholl is director of the Martinez orchestra.

Personnel of the orchestra is as follows:

ACALANES ADULT ORCHESTRA

Spotlighting the Strip

By KITTY COLE

Many people will spend the big Memorial week-end in town, enjoying the food and entertainment in our fine clubs and restaurants, but many will also crowd the highways leading out of town, so do drive carefully. Don't be an accident, going somewhere to happen.

Love that EL NIDO'S smorgasboard!!! And you, who are afraid of the "weighty" effect the loaded table will have on your self-control, need have no fear. There are many low-calorie dishes to choose from, something to please the taste of everyone. PAUL VICARI, accordianist at EL NIDO, and his charming EMILY, just welcomed a baby girl. Congrats, and all that . . . Did you know that the ORINDA WILLOWS has been doing business in the same spot for 37 years? Used to be the CONTRA COSTA COUNTRY CLUB, and while many additions have been made, the original dining-room is virtually the same. Since EVE and MILT NELSON took over 8 years ago, they have made many changes, and all for the best. Soon the NELSONS will announce another innovation. Soon's I get the word, will let you know. PHIL RAMIREZ, pianist with PEPE LANDEROS Band, used to have his own outfit. Played at the EL NIDO.

Fight night on T.V. finds many people eating at HAL'S, where they can enjoy the food and see the pugilistic contests, simultaneously. Saw a group of 12 men at a table, having a wonderful time. No doubt, their own television sets were taken over by other members of their families, so they decided to get together at HAL'S. Could develop into quite a gathering spot for sports fans, and large parties can be accommodated. Chick'n and Dumplin's is the specialty, but if you crave steaks or chops, can do . . . Had dinner at the CAPE COD HOUSE last night, so here's first hand information. The decor is authentic, and so attractive, and many unusual pieces of bric-a-brac adorn the walls. As for the food, I ordered the combination sea-food plate, prawns, oysters, scallops, and fillet of sole — m-m-m-good. Would like to tell you something about owner DON THOMPSON, but this quiet man thinks he isn't news, just wants me to mention his good food. However, his employees tell me they have never worked for better people than the THOMPSONS. High praise indeed.

DANNY VAN ALLEN'S is getting to be a popular afternoon rendezvous. Many stopper-in for a cool cocktail these warm days . . . PAUL'S VILLAGE in Richmond, has added CONCHITA, flamenco dancer, DEAN BORBA, comedian, and TRICIA, rhumba interpreter, to their floor show, which stars EDDIE GOMEZ. JIMMY RODGERS Orchestra, with vocalists RUSS PATRICK and DANNY SEGROVE, play for dancing.

Realtors Hear McKirahan On Commuters Group

Approximately 80 members of the Contra Costa County Realtors Mart were addressed by John E. McKirahan of Lafayette at their regular monthly breakfast meeting Monday morning at Planters Dock. McKirahan spoke as a representative of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association.

He gave a brief history of the Commuters Association, beginning with its founding over three years ago, and traced its progress up to the present. He dwelt briefly on the recent bus strike, and the hearing on commuter bus transportation still pending before the Public Utilities Commission in San Francisco, the outcome of which may possibly affect the riding habits of some 1000 commuters who now use public bus transportation in this area.

HE EXPRESSED an optimistic note of expected friendly relations between the commuters and Greyhound Lines, now that service has been resumed, in trying to solve their respective transportation problems

"However," he stated, "in the long run, other forms of transportation must be found. Certainly, if you gentlemen continue to build up this area, one highway and one bus system will be unable to carry the burden.

"It has been interesting to know of serious consideration given to revival of electric train service. There is no question that it would relieve some of the existing problems.

"LAST YEAR our legislature set up a Bay Area Rapid Transit Authority to study and devise an overall system for the entire Bay Area from Santa Rosa to Gilroy, and as far east as Vacaville and Tracy. This system will take years to engineer and build, but there is no question that it will come none too soon. Let us hope it won't be too late."

The realtors passed a resolution to appoint a representative to keep in touch with the Commuters Association.

Baldwin Caravan From Acalanes to Martinez Monday

Three motorcades, the largest starting from the Acalanes High School, will converge on the Hall of Records in Martinez next Monday night to wind up John F. Baldwin's campaign for a congressional seat.

The other two caravans will start from Brentwood and Richmond. Lindsey Spight of Orinda, chairman of the amateur Baldwin campaign organiaztion, termed the motorcade plan a "Paul Revere Ride" throughout Contra Costa County.

THE CARAVANS WILL meet in Martinez about 9 p.m. on Monday, eve of the June 3 primaries.

The East Contra Costa caravan will pause in Pittsburg to pick up Baldwin after he has finished his final radio broadcast. The autocade will then move through Oakley, Antioch, Pittsburg and Port Chicago.

THE LARGEST OF the "Paul Revere" caravans will assemble at Acalanes. It will proceed through Pleasant Hill area to Concord, where it will pick up a Concord contingent headed by Berl Bales, and then will proceed to Martinez via Pacheco.

Similar caravans will be staged in other areas in the district.

ENDORSED BY GROCERS

John Baldwin, candidate for Congress, and O. J. Wohlgemuth, candidate for the Assembly from the 10th Distrit, have been advised that they are the only Republican candidates in this county to receive the endorsements of the California Grocers Association and all affiliated local associations.

TALK BY CONDON

Robert L. Condon, congressional candidate from the 6th District and now Assemblyman from Contra Costa County, recently told the Bethel Island residents the federal government should further flood control in affected areas in Solano and Contra Costa counties.

A. F. L. BACKS MUTNICK

Harold Mutnick, candidate for Assembly from the 10th District, this week received the endorsement of the A. F. L. in Contra Costa County.

In giving Mutnick the endorsement, the Contra Costa County Labor League for Political Education said he was "the choice of organized labor."

Vote Tuesday – It Is Your Privilege

Teeter Presents Financial Data On County Road Bond Proposition

Dear Editor:

We have sent you a copy of the report on our county road system which was prepared by the Tudor Engineering Company of San Francisco. We think you will find it interesting. We hope that you will also find it convincing on the need for immediate major capital expenditures on the county's road system and that out of that conviction will come your editorial support for the county's proposed highways bond issue which the Board of Supervisors has decided to submit to the electorate on June 3.

Mr. Tudor has, of course, reported on the engineering aspect only. I would like to briefly supplement his report with some data on the financial aspects of the proposal.

YOU WILL RECALL that a proposed highways issue of 3,000,000 was submitted at the November, 1948, election along with a proposed building issue of like amount. The building issue was badly beaten, but in spite of a sketchy campaign which reached only a few of the electors, the highway issue received a 56 percent vote.

As you know, the county receives from the state a share of registration fees and motor vehicle fuel taxes and must use for road purposes all traffic fines received. Except for occasional special grants from the state or federal government, the only other source of financing for road needs is the local property tax. In the three years since 1948-49 the road section of the county budget has shown the following:

	1949-50	1950-51	1951-52
Proposed Highways Expenditures	1,895,905.00	2,273,313.00	3,365,477.00
Available Before Taxes	1,093,161.00	978,810.00	1,304,050.00
Tax Requirements	802,744.00	1,294,503.00	2,061,427.00
Tax Rate Equivalent	.29	.43	.62

While a detailed analysis of operations would show that actual expenditures deviated somewhat from the above planned financing, the fact remains that the financing demands for highways have fallen more and more heavily on the property owner. In spite of these soaring levies there is apparently little gain being made in correcting our road deficiencies. There exists in some quarters the conviction, in fact, that substantial portions of our expenditures are inefective and of a wasteful character simply because the highways we are working on were built for a different kind and volume of traffic than that of today and only rebuilding on a new foundation instead of a mere re-modeling will make them adequate.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS felt that because this was probably true, a thorough engineering examination of our whole system was advisable and that such an examination could best be made by an outside engineering firm which could come in without preconceived ideas or local prejudices. It was with this approach that the Tudor Engineering Company was selected for the job.

You will note from the report that Mr. Tudor regards his recommendations as a minimum of non-deferrable projects and not as a program to bring our whole system up-to-date. Actually it would reconstruct only 78 miles out of our total 848 miles of county roads. But with these strategic portions re-built and a resultant reduction in maintenance cost on them, we believe that we could make progress on the remaining mileage without the heavy property tax levies which we appear to face at present.

THE FIRST YEAR'S levy for the bond issue would approximate 20 cents per $100 on this year's assessed valuations, from which high point the rate would go down with ascending valuations and declining interest charges. The amount of the issue would be about 3 percent of our assessed valuation or comparable to a $3000 loan on assets of $100,000. True value, however, according to the report of the State Board of Equalization last summer, is about three times our assessed valuation so that the loan would be more truly on the order of $1000 to a $100,000 business concern.

It is our firm belief that the issue is in the interest of good management and over-all economy and that an immediate effect will be a 1952-53 tax rate lower than it would otherwise be. We cannot, of course, say categorically that the issue would result in a reduction of next year's total county rate by a specific number of cents, for at this point we can't predict what our tax needs will be for purposes other than roads.

Since, however, out of the highway requirements of $3,365,477 shown above for the curernt year, a total of $2,156,494 was provided for improvements, it is certainly a justified prediction that having 10¼ millions of borrowed money for improvements would make the need for such purposes out of current revenue very small for the next three or four years.

It is a justifiable prediction also that the savings in maintenance costs on the re-built highways will go far toward paying the bond issue costs and that the saving in time and auto wear will be pure velvet for the over-all economy.

Sincerely yours,
D. M. TEETER,
County Administrator.

Fashion Show By Jewish Women At Country Club

The "Caravan of Fashion," sponsored by the Central Contra Costa County League of Jewish Women was held May 14 at the Mt. Diablo Country Club and pronounced a highly beautiful, successful affair.

The four-hour program included an introduction by Mrs. Elliot Karlins, chairman of the fashion show; welcome address by Mrs. Robert Fredrick, president of the organization; drawing for the door prize by Mrs. Harold Bloom, a travelogue by Miss Barbara Farr of Trans World Airlines, and Danse Algerienne, presented by Dulcy Stover of the Raoul Pause Studio.

THE FASHION SHOW itself was presented by Lindburg's, with Mr. John Keller, commentator.

Mrs. Leon Dinkin painted a beautiful mural as a backdrop for the fashion show, and McDonnell Nursery provided the trees, shrubs and floral decorations for the show .

Mrs. Itano Gambino provided the piano music during the show and Lindburg's supplied the fashions and models.

THE LOCAL LEAGUE of Jewish Women was formed just one year ago. It represents an alliance of women from the communities of Central Contra Costa County, whose objective is to promote the social, educational and cultural life of the Jewish community and to channel effective participation in general community affairs.

Your Assembly Candidates Answer 9 Questions:

DONALD D. DOYLE

Donald D. Doyle

1. — THE PRESENT STATE law permits cities to rule out draw poker through local ordinances. Therefore I believe this issue to be a local matter at present and not one of the State Legislature. Should the same bill be presented to the Assembly in the future — I would be opposed to it.

2. — I BELIEVE the Taft-Hartley Labor Law to be a national issue and not one which affects the California State Legislature. However, even Senator Taft believes, according to repeated statements by him, that inequities exist under the present law and that it should be amended.

3. — IN MY OPINION no decision should be made on this bill until a report has been received from the Interim Committee now studying the "Urban Unincorporated Bill."

4. — THE CREATION of a freeway along the present Mt. Diablo Boulevard and extending it to join up with the Arnold Industrial Highway would, in my opinion, help to alleviate considerable traffic congestion.

5. — A PARALLEL bay bridge. A Southern crossing would not materially aid the residents of the 10th Assembly District.

6. — I AM OPPOSED to the continuation of the State Crime Commission, as I feel it has served its purpose and should not continue to take the place of our present law enforcement bodies.

7. — I AM DEFINITELY in favor of a law controlling dishonest lobbying, but I believe lobbying necessary to give varied groups in Sacramento proper representation.

8. — I AM OPPOSED to socialized medicine. However, I feel that our present disability insurance laws should be expanded to give more protection to the family should serious illness strike.

9. — I FEEL THAT unemployment insurance, workman's compensation, pension and welfare laws should be governed by the times and economic conditions of the state, and I would hesitate to give you a "yes" or "no" answer until I had an opportunity to review all aspects of the laws to be enacted.

Joe Meyer

IF A BILL is presented to outlaw draw poker in California, I will oppose it on the grounds that if people want to gamble they will also want to know what is wrong with draw poker. Most everyone likes to play poker in his home or elsewhere. If they try to outlaw draw poker it will be bootleg anyway, so why not let it be as it is?

NO. 2 — THE TAFT-HARTLEY Labor Law is and has been good for both sides. There is a point to bring out: The State Assembly has nothing to do with it one way or the other.

NO. 3 — ON THE URBAN Unincorporated Bill — if the provisions of the bill were the same, I would veto it.

NO. 4 — THE STATE HIGHWAY I think should be given first attention is Tunnel Road, as it is a death trap. It should be made bigger and better, and if I am elected I will do my best to see that it is made a better and a larger highway.

NO. 5 — I FAVOR a new Southern Bridge, as it is needed badly if we are to get more people to live in our great county. We have to give them the best way to get from home to work and back.

NO. 6 — I WILL SUPPORT the continuation of the State Crime Commission, as it should have more teeth in it if we want to stamp out crime.

NO. 7 — I FAVOR A stricter lobby control law. There is no need to say that if it is stronger we can stamp out graft in Sacramento.

NO. 8 — I FAVOR Governor Warrens proposed compulsory health insurance law, for a very good reason. There are thousands of people in California who have no insurance, and if something happens to any one of them, the state has to take care of them with taxpayers' money.

(Editor's note: No answer on No. 9.)

Harold E. Mutnick

1.—DRAW POKER. Moderation and rigid control is the more realistic approach to the problem of gambling. Prohobition did not work with liquor, and would not work with gambling.

I would, therefore, oppose a bill arbitrarily outlawing all gambling. I do, however, favor rigid zoning restrictions applied to poker-parlors, which have no place in residential communities such as Lafayette, Orinda, and Walnut Creek.

2.—TAFT-HARTLEY. I disapprove of the present Taft-Hartley Law, since it is an attempt, by legislative means, to hamper and restrict labor unions and those of our people who work in organized crafts. Barring national emergencies and excluding essential industries, free and unfettered collective bargaining is a desirable attribute of our system of free enterprise.

3.—URBAN UNINCORPORATED BILL. Incorporated areas of the county should not benefit from county-tax funds at the expense of the unincorporated areas. Likewise, the unincorporated areas should not so benefit at the expense of the incorporated areas.

I would, therefore, support such a measure, and would urge residents of areas such as the communities of Lafayette and Orinda to give careful consideration to the benefits to be derived from early incorporation.

4.—STATE HIGHWAY. Mt. Diablo Boulevard is the state highway in Contra Costa County which should be given first attention by state authorities. In the light of the tremendous volume of local and through traffic, this artery has become a definie hazard to life, limb and nervous system.

Another tunnel, an Orinda overpass, freeways, cloverleaves, even if undertaken immediately, would have to consider not only current critical needs, but also the anticipated accelerated rate of Contra Costa's growth five and ten years hence.

5.—BAY BRIDGE. I favor a new southern-crossing bridge across the San Francisco Bay, in conjunction with a northern-crossing linking Contra Costa and Marin. A parallel bay bridge would only tend to aggravate the bottleneck traffic congestion of the single main highway of this region, Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

6.—STATE CRIME COMMISSION. I support continuation of the State Crime Commission, coordinating its criminal investigation activities with those of the office of the State Attorney General.

HAROLD E. MUTNICK

7.—LOBBY CONTROL LAW. I favor stricter lobby-control law. Sources of all funds used to finance lobbying activities for the purpose of influencing legislation ought to be made a matter of public knowledge. Criminal sanctions should be enacted and actively enforced against all lobby-control violations.

8.—HEALTH INSURANCE. I favor Governor Warren's proposed health insurance law, as a sensible and practicable insurance measure for spreading the fisk of unforseen medical costs over the widest possible insurance base.

This measure is not socialized medicine. It is merely a form of insurance, like social security, governmentally administered. The freedom of choice of one's own family physician would remain. The insurance fund would only furnish some means for helping meet the doctor and hospital bills.

9. — UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE, WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION AND PENSION LAWS. I favor expansion and liberalization of these laws at the present time, to provide greater benefits for those of our less-fortunate citizens stricken with unemployment, industrial accident or insecure old-age. The current inflation, with its high cost of living, compels a compensatory increase in these fixed-income benefits.

John A. Nejedly

1.—IN REPLY TO your letter of May 12, may I say that as Deputy district attorney I requested and sponsored legislation to outlaw draw poker and gambling in every form for the reason that the pernicious effects of gambling cannot be limited to one form nor can the essential evils of gambling be confined to gambling alone.

2.—I CANNOT ANSWER in a word your question concerning the Taft-Hartley Act. I feel that, for example, the jurisdictional strike prevention part of this bill is needed, but on the other hand, the requirements of opportunity to union membership of every applicant are unwise, for a union cannot maintain realistic standards of competency without discretion as to admission based on fitness. If an intelligent answer is made possible a thorough exposition would be required.

3.—I AM IN FAVOR of recognition of the purposes behind A. B. 3217, but the cost accounting procedures of this particular legislation are difficult to administer. In those cases where it can be shown that

Prospective Office Holders State Views on Series of Questions

In an effort to acquaint voters with the views of Assembly candidates on vital questions, the SUN sent a letter to each candidate, asking him to reply to nine queries. The answers received appear here.

The mailing of the questionnaire and the publications of the answers are a public service by the SUN. We do not support any candidate.

These are the questions which were asked:

1. The last session of the assembly passed a bill to outlaw draw poker in California. If this bill is again presented, will you support or oppose it?

2. Do you approve or disapprove of the present Taft-Hartley labor law?

3. An interim study committee is now studying an "urban unincorporated bill" which will come up again in the next session. Will you vote yes or no for the bill with provisions generally the same as they were?

4. Which state highway in Contra Costa County do you think should be given first attention by the state?

5. Do you favor a new southern-crossing bridge or a parallel bay bridge?

6. Will you support or oppose continuation of the State Crime Commission?

7. Do you favor or oppose a stricter lobby-control law?

8. Do you favor or oppose Governor Warren's proposed compulsory health insurance law?

9. Do you think our present unemployment insurance, workmen's insurance, workmen's compensation, pension and welfare laws should be 1) expanded and liberalized; 2) contracted and tightened; or 3) left as is.

cities, by incorporation, relieve the county of duties, the saving so effected to the county should be returned directly to the city.

For example, if zoning costs $1 per capita per year for the county and an area of 5000 people incorporates, the county will save approximately $5000 by relief from zoning administration, and this amount should be paid to the city.

4.—THE TUNNEL to Monument Freeway.

5.—NEITHER. I favor an extension and improvement of the Dam

JOHN A. NEJEDLY

Road and direct access to a northern crossing, largly fill, to Angel Island and San Francisco.

6.—YES, vigorously.

7.—I FAVOR the principle of this legislation, but suggest a more realistic approach.

8.—I OPPOSE IT.

9.—I SUGGEST stricter enforcement of present legislation, extension of the principle of relief from fear of want to all peoples, but a limitation to cases where actual want is demonstrated in unemployment and welfare cases, and expansion of pension benefits to as large a group of our people as possible.

King Parker Jr.

1.—IF THE BILL to outlaw draw poker is again presented to the Assembly I will support it. I do not, however, believe this legislation is nearly as vital to the people of California as the bill to increase the penalties on narcotics violators or legislation designed to help curb juvenile delinquency. I will consider my time much more wisely spent if devoted to supporting the latter two issues.

2.—I DEFINITELY approve of the present Taft-Hartley labor law. It is possible that the law could be improved by minor changes but I believe in it in principle because it protects the individual working man from unscrupulous labor leaders and from hasty action that could jeopardize the welfare of the individual. I do not believe, how-ver, that labor, management or the government has taken full advantage of all the benefits of the law.

3.—IN REGARD TO the urban unincorporated bill, I have not had the opportunity to study this proposed legislation and therefore can not give an intelligent answer at this time.

4.—THE STATE HIGHWAY that should be given the most attention, I believe, is Highway 24 between Walnut Creek and Oakland. This is the most congested and overcrowded and unless the surveys and traffic count show otherwise it should be given Number 1 priority.

5.—IN REGARD TO the bay bridge, I am in favor of the plan proposed by the Bay Area Council, which is neither a parallel, nor southern crossing. This plan, although relatively unknown and unpublished, is acceptable to the majority of the opponents of the parallel crossing and it will divert the same volume of traffic from the present bridge as would a parallel crossing. A southern crossing, I believe, should then be built to complete the pattern.

6.—I WILL SUPPORT the continuation of the State Crime Commission as long as it continues to safeguard the interests of the people and intelligently conducts investigations which expose graft and corruption in California.

7.—I SEE NO REASON to change our lobby-control law one way or the other. The effectiveness of lobbyists in Sacramento is only measured by the caliber of the men doing the lobbying and the good judgement of the men enacting the legislation. We can pass laws till doomsday that tend to curb harmful lobbying but the only way to stop the effects of unscrupulous lobbyists is to elect representatives that will vote according to the dictates of their conscience and the wishes of the majority of their constituants.

8.—I AM VIOLENTLY opposed to Governor Warren's proposed compulsory health insurance law. I believe that in general Governor Warren's administration and policy have been good (we could have had a lot worse), however, I think he is way off the beam on this one.

This compulsory health insurance, is, I believe, in direct competition with private enterprise and is contrary to the main plank in my platform. I have, from the outset, told the voters that I will work for and support any reasonable measure that will eliminate or tend to reduce government competition with private enterprise.

9.—I BELIEVE THAT our present unemployment insurance, workmen's compensation, pension and welfare laws are adequate and provide the most liberal welfare of any state in the Union. I do not think they should be contracted but I believe the qualifications should be given more scrutiny and should be enforced more rigidly.

There are too many cases of people falsifying their qualifications and too many undeserving people chiseling on unemployment insurance for the good of the state. I believe there is a considerable amount of indifference displayed by the civil servants administering these laws and I think they should be tightened to prevent the many cases of undeserving people moving into California and getting on our relief rolls within a few weeks after their arrival.

William H. Phelps

1.—I WILL SUPPORT IT. To single out one form of gambling and call it legal and call all others illegal is inconsistent. I am opposed to gambling because it siphons the money from the hands of the many into the hands of a few and possibly could result in a detrimental effect on our economy.

I have, however, no feeling that gambling is morally wrong in itself, because all life is a risk. I believe that blanket legalization of gambling is the proper subject of a referendum (drafted by impartial people) in which the people may decide this issue, and all gambling should either be legal or illegal.

2.—THIS IS A STATE Assembly race and Taft-Hartley is a Federal law. It is a comprehensive law with many aspects and ramifications which would entail a great deal of study. I believe that it is proper for a candidate to refrain from committing himself on issues that do not concern us here.

It is just the same as in all other businesses — when you are confronted with a problem you take the time to thoroughly study that problem and then try to work out a satisfactory solution. I believe that I speak with authority in dealing in such a matter in that a thorough knowledge of Taft-Hartley is practically a complete course in labor law.

I will, however, say that I am chary of the motives of those exponents of legislation which restricts union activities and which attempts to divorce the membership from their leaders. Sound and firm union leadership is the very basis of all effective collective bargaining.

3.—I HAVE NOT HAD the opportunity to study the "urban unincorporated bill" but I do feel that in the Walnut Creek area we are rapidly becoming a metropolitan area. We are no longer "in the country" — criminals, fires and contagious diseases are no respectors of political boundaries. We must provide the necessary civic services for the areas which are not within the incorporated towns.

It is also true that the area which receives the benefit should pay for it because that is the fair thing to do. I believe that possibly the best solution would be to have a borough system in which local autonomy in the various built-up areas would be preserved.

4.—MT. DIABLO BOULEVARD is the obvious bottleneck of the whole county. It seems to me that this is the key and that you cannot plan your other highways until are definitely committed on what you are going to do with Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

5.—IF THE RIEBER Plan is feasible — which it seems to be on first impression — I am in favor of it, and further bridges would be unnecessary. However, as to the alternative of a southern crossing and parallel bridges, I believe that the former will do more to improve the Bay Area as a whole. The bottleneck is still in the approaches and is getting worse on the San Francisco side. A parallel bridge would run all the traffic down into one big traffic jam.

I think that legislators should follow the course which benefits the most people in this type of case, and not merely do that which benefits or is popular with his own constituents.

6.—I BELIEVE THE Crime Commission is a good cross-check to see that the regular law enforcement officers do their jobs. It also apprises the Legislature as to what is taking place in the underworld so that proper legislation can be enacted to combat organized crime.

7.—THE INFLUENCE of the lobbyist in California has reached dangerous dimensions. However, I believe that the lobby control reforms recently enacted are about as effective as we can get toward enacting laws to combat this evil. In dealing with the problem we should bear in mind the following:

(a) The lobby is useful and almost indispensable to good legislation — it is the methods and the powers of a few wherein the evil lies.

(b) This evil results from a breakdown in our two-party system in California and consequent lack of party discipline. It is true that we want to have our lawmakers think independently but it is better that they turn to their party for support in seeking reelection rather than to one or several special interest groups. Abolishment of cross-filing would help.

(c) The press should inform the people of the lobbying abuses as they occur (if they can get the information) so that the public can know who the weak legislators are and vote them out. We should not elect individuals whose experience, background and thinking are confined to a narrow field or who have not moved outside of special interest circles.

8. — I FAVOR COMPULSORY health insurance. I think that when somebody doesn't like something the first thing they do is to tag a name on it and such is the case of Governor Warren's "socialized" medicine. We have a situation where private insurance plans are inadequate and something should be done about it. Governor Warren's solution appears to me to be the best.

We, of course, must have due regard for the doctors and see that the rates are high enough to adequately compensate them for their years of study.

9. — WORKMEN'S compensation should be expanded and liberalized. Unemployment insurance, pension and welfare laws should at least keep pace with the increased cost of living. However, we do need stricter laws and stricter law enforcement to prevent fraudulent receipt of benefits.

Statement Lacking From Harmon Welsh

Editors Note: Up to press time the SUN did not receive any copy from Assembly candidate Harmon Welsh on his answers to the nine questions. All eight Assembly candidates received the questionnaire and an original request and also a reminder notice. Welsh telephoned the SUN on Tuesday that he would try to have his statement in that night. Pictures were furnished by each candidate.

O. J. Wohlgemuth

1.—I WILL support it.

2.—I HAVE NEVER read the Taft-Hartley law but from what I have read I believe it needs amending.

3.—I WOULD vote "no."

4.—A FREEWAY from Oakland through Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Concord, Pittsburg, to Stockton.

5.—I HAVE NOT studied the issues and have not made up my mind. At present I am for another crossing but am in no position to say which it should be.

O. J. WOHLGEMUTH

6.—I WOULD SUPPORT continuation.

7.—I FAVOR a more strict lobby-control law.

8.—I OPPOSE the Governor's proposed compulsory health insurance law. I believe that any such law should be voluntary, in deference to those minority groups who would oppose compulsory health insurance. I would not oppose a voluntary law.

9.—I THINK THEY should be expanded and liberalized and that such expansion should be paid for out of savings in the tightening of qualifying provisions

County to Study New Park Plan

Members of the Contra Costa Park Council will present recommendations concerning parks development throughout the county to the Board of Supervisors and the county Planning Commission at a joint meeting June 11.

The recommendations, calling for $8,500 to conduct a park survey in the county, were drafted by the Parks Council and discussed at a meeting last Thursday in the Concord Recreation Center at which 50 representatives of county organizations attended.

WILLIAM PENN MOTT, of Orinda, quoting from his experience as superintendent of parks for Oakland and drawing on statistics from many other cities and counties in the U.S., told representatives attending the meeting that any money spent at this time on parks in the county would "come back with interest."

In addition, he pointed out that a definite parks program would mean an increase in property values and better living conditions.

Drawing from statistics, Mott emphasized that in every case where a county spent money for a parks program, property values have increased more than enough to offset the cost of the parks and their maintenance.

IN CITING THE NEED for a parks program at this time, Mott noted that Contra Costa County is the fastest growing county in the U. S. and predicted a one and one-half million population increase in the county within the next ten years.

Mott urged immediate action on a parks development program and pointed to the unfortunate example of New York City, which waited too long to establish a definite program and subsequently had to spend 10 billion dollars for land alone.

Following Mott's comments, three Concord City Councilmen agreed there was an immediate need for county park development. Councilman Norbert Gehringer told the group that money not spent for parks now would have to be spent later for expanded police forces. He pointed out that crime prevalence coincides with areas of greatest congestion.

COUNCIL CHAIRMAN ALVIN BURTON of Walnut Creek and Mott informed the group that money requested for a park survey would come from the county general fund and would not increase present tax rates.

Regarding questions on the size and number of prospective parks, Burton and Mott explained the proposed survey would supply the answers to establishment of parks throughout the county.

However, they pointed out that the Council was thinking in terms of large parcels of land in excess of 100 acres and not small playgrounds, which they declared to be projects for local community enterprise.

ALSO TAKING PART in the discussion was Mrs. Leonard Miller of Walnut Creek Women's Club; University of California Professor Ralfe Miller of Lafayette; George H. Cardinet, Jr., of Concord; Herb Perry of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and James Curran of the Bethel Island Rosicrucian Sunshine Circle.

Burton announced the next public council meeting will be held June 23 at the Coast Counties Gas Company Building in Walnut Creek.

HELPFUL HINTS
FROM MILTIF

You can considerably lessen the chance of someone accidentally getting a dose of something poisonous from the bathroom cabinet by sticking a piece of adhesive tape across the bottle cap and down the sides of the bottle. Anyone picking up the bottle by mistake would have to remove the tape to open it and that action would cause a closer look at the label.

You will probably save yourself a lot of heartaches and troubles if you just take the little precaution mentioned here. The only advantage I can see in not being careful with poison bottles is in case you want to get rid of a worn out spouse. You can always claim it was an accident.

Camp Stoneman Steps Up Activities Available for Boys' Organizations

Army officials at Camp Stoneman announced this week Army activities for boy's groups will be stepped-up immediately throughout the camp.

Stoneman Commander Colonel Richard D. Boerem said the camp schedule calls for spring, summer and fall open house days for Boy Scouts, Junior YMCA and school classes.

THE PROGRAM at Stoneman is being stepped-up in keeping with a recent change in Army policy.

Colonel Boerem pointed out that in addition to planned activities the post will be open at all times for any boys' group desiring to tour the post.

Interested persons have been asked to contact the Public Information Officer, Headquarters, Camp Stoneman, Calif., for further information and establishment of tour schedules.

IN THE IMMEDIATE future, open houses will be held for boys' groups in the following fields:

Demonstrations with jeeps, emphasizing safe driving technique; Observation of firing of various weapons for the purpose of demonstrating necessary safety precautions when handling fire arms; Exhibitions drills; Ceremonies with a band and colors; Boxing, judo and swimming; Showing of training films covering use of the compass, map reading and other subjects relating to explorer scouting.

DEMONSTRATING of communication and engineer equipment; Boy-soldier contests in tent-pitching and compass competition; Meals in an Army dining hall or field kitchen; Bivouac and tours through various activities on the Post.

One of the more interesting parts of the tours will be the Post Provost Marshal's office. There the visiting boys will be shown how the Army's 'Police Force' closely parallels the Police Force in their community.

Christian Science Sermon on Sunday Flays Mesmerism

In all Christian Science churches the Lesson-Sermon to be read on Sunday, June 1, will have for its subject, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

The Bible citations in the sermon will include quite a number of verses from St. John's messages to the seven churches which are in Asia, as given in the book of Revelation. One of these verses will read:

"Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown" (3:11).

The correlative citations from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following passage:

"Peals that should startle the slumbering thought from its erroneous dream are partially unheeded; but the last trump has not sounded, or this would not be so. Marvels, calamities, and sin will much more abound as truth urges upon mortals its resisted claims; but the awful daring of sin destroys sin, and forshadows the triumph of truth" (p. 223).

Acalanes Varsity Beats Diablo 8-4 On Local Diamond

The Acalanes Dons Varisty registered another win in County League baseball play last Friday afternoon when they outscored Diablo 8-4 in an all important game in the pennant race.

The game, played on the Acalanes diamond, found the Dons jumping to an early lead when they scored two runs in the second frame.

Richard Davis singled and Bob Gray walked, with both scoring when Bob Westlund boomed out a triple on a hard-hit drive.

BIG INNING for the Dons came in the fourth.

With two away, Bob Gray walked, as did Richard Ting, and the bases were loaded when Bob Westlund received a free pass to first on four pitched balls.

Andy Monsen hit a single at this point, scoring Gray and Ting.

Bob Dwight followed with another safe blow to right field, bringing home two runs when Westlund and Monsen crossed home plate standing up.

THE DONS ADDED two more in the fifth when the leadoff batter, John Champlin, singled and Bob Borghesani caught hold of a fast ball down the middle, which ended up deep in the outfield between center and right and was good for a circuit clout.

Diablo's runs came when they scored three in the third on a lone hit, aided by a hit batter, a walk and an error.

The other score came when Left Fielder Miller found one to his liking and packed it deep in center for a home run.

BOB WESTLUND was the starting and winning pitcher; he threw the first four.

Bob Borghesani rounded out the game, taking over the mound duties in the bottom half of the fifth.

It's Don Custom–Borghesani Has Good Chance for All-Star Baseball Contest

By ERWIN MATTSON

WORD HAS JUST BEEN RECEIVED that Bob Borghesani is one of 24 invited to try out for the All-Star Baseball game to be played in the Seals Stadium early in June.

Acalanes has had a number of players in the past take part in the game, and all have done right well.

There are in reality two All-Star tilts, with the American Legion sponsoring one later in the month.

It was in the Legion game that Don Ferrarese did his stuff so well that he won a trip to New York. He proceeded to make his selection look good when he won the top honor and with it the Lou Gehrig Memorial Trophy.

Since then, Don has played pro ball and is at present in the Army, stationed in Hawaii, where he is doing O.K. with the horsehide as he tosses wins with regularity and has a record of 64 strikeouts in five games.

Don is slated for release from Army duty in early fall and could well be with the Oaks next season, as he is at present their property.

Bill Piona, Howard Goodrich and Dick Green are others who took part in All-Star tilts and did all right.

IT WILL BE INTERESTING to see how Bob Borghesani does in the next few years. He is big, ranging over six feet, three inches, and is over the 200 pound mark.

One thing certain is that to get ahead one has to get a few breaks along the way. The road to success is not an easy one and not an overnight deal. It requires lots of work, practice and patience.

Few have had a smooth road all the way.

You can be sure that Bob will give it his all. He has the attitude and ability to make the grade and, given the right breaks, could well go to the top. Popular with team mates, fans, students and faculty, he will have the best wishes of all.

REGULAR LEGION competition in baseball gets under way tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. on the Acalanes diamond for the lads of Post 517 when they open play with the Walnut Creek nine.

The Post 517 players will make it a full weekend when they travel to El Cerrito on Sunday.

Post 517 has had a team in the league for boys 16 and under, with an even chance to cop top honors, being tied for the number 2 spot, with two games to go.

The 17-and-under league is the one on a national basis, and competition will be keener, with bigger and better teams.

The local Legion is one of few to enter a nine for the past seven years, so far as Contra Costa County goes.

Sixteen boys are carried on the roster, and ball is played throughout the summer.

LAS LOMAS comes into the League in a limited way next year when it will play football and take part in track.

Football will be confined to J. V. play, with the understanding that the opposition will use Frosh and Soph players, as those will be the only two classes to represent the Walnut Creek entry. Las Lomas will take the bye dates in the regular schedule.

Lack of facilities prevents Las Lomas from taking part in tennis and swimming, while baseball is not planned as a part of the program until 1953.

ONE CHANGE advocated at the recent league meeting in Martinez but not definitely decided on was to move track meets to Friday and have ball games on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Some proposed holding both events on the same day, but the proposal was dropped due to a number of conflicting factors, such as transportation and the problem of using two coaches on the same day.

In most instances that would deplete the physical education department and create a problem as far as handling regular P. E. classes is concerned.

Don JV's Trim Devils, 8 to 2

The Acalanes Junior Varsity baseball nine closed its 1952 season with a bang when it posted an 8-2 win over the Diablo Devils last Friday in a game at Concord.

The Dons jumped to an early lead and were never headed as they fired a 10 hit barrage led by Benny Edgar, who had three for four with the bat.

Rick Johnson hurled the first four frames and held the opposition well in hand with John Olcott taking over in the fifth frame and finishing up the game in fine style.

Post 517 Nine, Avon in Champ Tiff Tomorrow

The Lafayette Legion notched another win and maintained its grip on first place in the County League when it scored six runs against Pleasant Hill last Saturday morning at the Acalanes diamond.

That scoring proved to be plenty for the win, as Red Jones had a good day on the mound, whiffing 10 while throwing shutout ball to get credit for the 6-0 victory.

The win kept the local nine in a tie for the number 1 spot with Avon's nine. As a result, the championship depends on the game between Avon and Lafayette at the Acalanes diamond tomorrow morning at 10.

Red Jones is slated for mound duty, with Benny Edgan behind the mask for Lafayette Post 517.

Finals Sunday in Orinda Country Club Golf Tourney

Third round in the Orinda Country Club Golf Championship will be played today, semi-finals tomorrow, and 36-hole finale Sunday.

In last week's second round clash, Hi Hennings, defending champ, beat out Frank Brunk on the 20th hole with a birdie. An eight-iron blast dropped him four and a half feet from the cup.

Frankie McCann whipped Bob Hoyt, 5 and 4, while playing one-over-par golf.

In other contests, Dr. W. M. Noble defeated Jerry Jerome, Ed Foley defeated Don Doten, John Stoffel defeated Stu Bennetts, Carl Goemmer defeated Tom Ray Jr., and Don Phipps defeated Dick Ghent.

Dons Eke 4-3 Win On Devils' Court

The Diablo Devils gave the Dons some stiff competition in league tennis play before going down by a 4-3 count in matches played on the Acalanes courts last Friday afternoon.

The win gave the Dons an undefeated season in dual meets, as far as league play is concerned.

In the number 1 singles, Howard Flanders of Acalanes defeated Carlos Gonzales, 6-3, 6-4.

Diablo evened things up when Adrian Riggs took Jerry Gray 6-2, 6-4.

Jim Gonzales of Diablo took three sets to defeat Don Rathjen 6-4, 5-7, 6-1, but Phil Lowthian of Acalanes defeated Art Jacobsen 6-4, 6-3, and Ron Dallas of the Dons measured Bernie Warner 6-4, 6-4, to put Acalanes out in front when the double matches were split, with Carlos Gonzales and Riggs defeating Flanders and Gray, 6-2, 6-4, while Phil Lowthian and Ron Dallas upset J. Gonzales and Jacobsen 6-3, 7-5.

Dons Barely Miss Placing in State Track Contest

Coach Charles Eaton went to Los Angeles with Neil Caldwell, ace Don pole vaulter, and Doug Cooper, high hurdler, but both failed to place in the still competition.

As usual, Southern California dominated the meet with record-breaking performances.

CALDWELL CLEARED 11 feet 6 inches, but missed at 12 feet when he cleared the height only to hit the bar with his arm on the way down.

Cooper just missed getting into the finals when he was nosed out for fourth place in his qualifying heat.

THE ONLY POINT GETTER from Contra Costa County was Jimmy Briggs of Pittsburg, who came from behind to cop the 880-yard run and stop the clocks at 1:57.2

Indians Wallop Don Nine, 9-0

The John Swett Indians proved to have too much stuff for the Dons when they racked up a league win over the Dons Tuesday afternoon at the Crockett diamond.

John Swett combined seven hits with five Don errors to score nine runs, which proved to be plenty, as Acalanes could post but one and that in the fifth, when Dick Fey romped home from his perch on third.

THAT OCCURED when pitcher Joel Heckman lobbed one over the first baseman's heal in attempting to retire Bob Borghesani on an infield roller.

Inability to hit with any consistency kept the Dons out of the scoring column.

THE DONS HAD men on first and second in the second, third and sixth but failed to score on each ocassion.

John Swett committed three miscues in the field but played tight ball when the occasion demanded and as a result the Dons went down to their fifth loss of the season, giving the Crickett Indians the inside track on championship hopes.

Crockett plays Antioch today, while the Dons have completed their season, having drawn a bye.

County Title Won By Don Divoters

The Acalanes golf team captured individual and team honors at the County Tournament held at Diablo Country Club Monday.

Bob Diehl posted an 81 to cop medalist honors, while Ray Orr and Dave Cranston were next in line with 82.

Pittsburg, Diablo and Antioch tied for the number 2 spot in team standings.

Don Tennis Team Whips Swett 4-1

The Acalanes tennis team rounded out its season in league play when it stroked its way to an easy 4-1 win over John Swett in matches held at the Crockett Club Tuesday.

Don Rathjen lost to Mel Green 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, while Phil Lowthian defeated Rolie Braga 6-3, 6-0.

In the third singles match Ron Dallas had things all his own way as he trimmed Ted Awlt 6-0, 6-0.

In the doubles Lowthian and Dallas defeated Green and Braga 7-5, 6-2.

In the Number 2 doubles Jim Brown and Jim Todd defeated Ted Awlt and King Reynolds 6-1, 6-3.

The win gave the Dons an undefeated season in league play.

Davis Wins Acalanes Presidency

Final Student balloting at Acalanes High School this week revealed that Ned Davis defeated Ed Neighbor for the Presidency of the student body for the 1952-53 school year.

Other studnts scheduled to take office next year are: Rick Johnson, vice president; Judy Johnson, secretary; Carolyn Goforth, social secretary; Karen Johanson, treasurer; Judy Rugh, Girls' Yell Leader, and Jim Watkins, Boys' Yell Leader.

The new student president is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Davis of Lafayette. Ned is an "A" Student; was a member of the Don Junior Varsity Football Team; is a staff member and photographer for the Acalanes Blueprint, the school newspaper, and has been a leader in forenisic activities at Acalanes.

Re-elect a GOOD STATE SENATOR

38 year old George Miller, Jr., has represented you well in Sacramento as an Assemblyman and State Senator. Although a first term Senator he is credited with having passed every bill of importance to Contra Costa County.

He is a ranking member of the important Senate Education Committee and vice-chairman of the committee on Public Health and Safety. The powerful Rules Committee appointed him to the vital interim committee on Civilian Defense. The president of the Senate named him a member of the 3-man conference committee on the state budget and the Governor appointed him to a committee to draft legislation for the completion of the Central Valleys Projects.

Miller lives near Martinez with his wife and three children and is in business in Richmond.

GEORGE MILLER, Jr.

Your State Senator has been the principal author of successful school legislation. He has placed county roads under the state system to lift financial burden from local taxpayers.

He led the successful fight to secure funds for the construction of a bridge from Richmond to San Rafael. Nearly doubled share of highway money ordinarily allocated to the county. Raised minimum salaries of teachers. Liberalized state veterans' loans.

Fought to save the Central Valley project, to bring cheap raw water to farm and industrial area. Supported the continuation of the Governor's Crime Commission. Fought to make it tough on narcotic peddlers.

Guided flood control legislation for the county through the senate. Spokesman for bill extending equal opportunities on state work to all regardless of race, creed or color. Successfully opposed Tenney "thought control" legislation. Forefront in the fight to preserve our constitutional rights.
